FIRE IN BUFFALO.

&c., &c., &c., &c., &c.

From New York.

New York, January 25.—The hospital steamer, S. H. Spaulding arrived at this port last evening from Fort Fisher, bringing 445 wounded soldiers.

A number of union gunboats had gone up Cape Fear river, and were shelling the woods in order to dislodge the enemy.

The remains of one of the heroic dead of Fort Fisher have also reached here—Gen. Louis Bell.
He was killed in the assault of the 15th.

His remains were in charge of Lieut. Sanford, of the 1st Maine Cavalry, and the body of Gen. Bell is to be carried to New Hampshire.

The Richmond Whig thus states the result of the south making war upon the nation, attributing the horrors to the Yankees:

Our outraged women, our homeless babies, our some untimely slain, our blackened homes, our leagues of desolated land, our battered cities, our slaves in arms against us, our prisoners murdered in cold blood, or pining year after year in northern dungeons, all tell us what the Yankee is at heart.

Gold has risen in Richmond to 3500 premium.
The Mobile Register of the 19th says the people absolutely decline to let with the odds of losing to one on the success of our cause and the honesty of our government and people.

The Charleston Courier discusses the guerrilla warfare with the purpose of showing the efficiency of that style of hostilities, to which the rebel cause may soon be brought.

The Richmond papers represent H. C. army as suffering intensely until they reached more wealthy districts, when they fared better. It is thought he may be obliged to fall back beyond Cynthiana, until the roads are repaired to that place.

The Tribune's Washington special says when his return from Richmond he exhibited a letter from Jeff. Davis, saying that whenever the president of the United States would receive commissioners from the government of the Confederate States to negotiate for peace, he would appoint them. He accompanied the assurance with a declaration of his own desire for a speedy termination of hostilities.

The Times' Washington special says it is now generally understood that Blair did not go in any sense as a representative of the government to Richmond, and he is not authorized to encourage the hope that any overtures for peace will be made or accepted, which look however remote towards a division of the union, nor is it believed the rebels are yet prepared to treat on any other terms.

A popular sentiment avowed the desire of the rebel government for peace. When their armies are destroyed they will probably make peace.
Mr. Blair has not yet returned.

The government has been assured the Canadian authorities have determined to remove all cases of desertion from the part of this country, growing out of the recent occurrences.
Judge Cowell will be removed. This will probably lead to a speedy abrogation of the passport system.

By the Atlantic, from Mobile, it is reported that a formidable expedition had left Fort Morgan and Gaines, up the Pascagoula river, to take position in rear of Mobile, placing the city partly at the mercy of the union, nor is it believed the rebels are yet prepared to treat on any other terms.

Deserters report that there is much dissatisfaction with the rebel government in Mobile.
The Richmond Sentinel calls for a new outburst of enthusiasm and patriotism. It says it would be delightful and inspiring.

A citizen writes to it that he had a moderate supply of bacon in the house and he asked his wife shall the meat go. She responded, yes, let it go, and it went. Perhaps it was the kind fed to our poor prisoners.

From Buffalo.

Buffalo, January 25.—The American Hotel is in ruins and the fire still continues to rage.
One building on Main street, was blown up by Mayor Fargo, which partly arrested the fire, but it is feared it will extend to Pearl street. It is snowing, with a furious gale blowing, and the thermometer 3 above zero. Loss by the American Hotel fire, $70,000. All railroad trains are detained by the storm.

From Fort Monroe.

Fort Monroe, January 25.—The bark Capt. Capt. Gannett arrived in New York from Pernambuco. The captain reports that the rebel privateer Shenandoah had destroyed several American merchantmen along the coast of Brazil, in consequence of which vessels bound to the United States were obtaining British registers, so as to enable them to sail under British colors.

Best of the Illinois Black Laws.

New York, January 25.—A dispatch receiving C. O. Tilton, from Springfield, Illinois says that the Illinois Senate has repealed the black laws by four majority, and the House is certain to concur.
